

CITATION

Dr. Syed Fazle Hadi

MBBS (King Edward Medical College)
FCPS (Hon) , MRCP, FRCP

He is recipient of LEGION d' HONNEUR, the highest Civil Award of France.

This was given for his services and leadership during the Earthquake Crisis of October 2005 and for increasing cooperation between France and Pakistan.

- He retired as Executive Director Pakistan Institute of Medical Sciences Islamabad in November 2007.
- He was Head of the Department of Medicine at PIMS and Dean of the Quaid-e-Azam Post Graduate Medical College Islamabad.
- He was Dean of the Faculty Medicine and member of the Advance Studies and Research Board at Quaid-e-Azam University Islamabad.
- He remained Supervisor and Examiner at College of Physicians and Surgeons, Pakistan.
- He was the only Civilian to have commanded an Army Institution, namely, the Fauji Foundation Hospital and the Artificial Limb Centre Rawalpindi.
- He was Head of Department of Medicine at KRL Hospital, Kahuta.
- He was Head of Maroof International Hospital Islamabad.
- He was Head of Department of Medicine at Ahmadi Hospital, Kuwait.
- He is also Chairman of the Board of Governors of the Pakistan Haemophilia Society, Rawalpindi and Islamabad Branch.
- He has special interest in Planning, Building, Commissioning and running of Hospitals as well as in Healthcare Planning.

- In 2015 he was a member of a three member JUDICIAL COMMISSION which carried out an extensive Inquiry into the PM&DC affairs. As a result of the Inquiry, the Government, by a Presidential Ordinance, dissolved the then administration of PM&DC and appointed an Administrative Committee which held fresh elections. This resulted in the much improved new Council of the PM&DC.
- In 2015 he was appointed by the Federal Ombudsman, to two separate Inquiry Committees. These were the Measles outbreak and the affairs of PIMS. As a result of these inquiries, major reforms have been instituted in both these areas.
- Appointed as Head of a Committee by NAB to advise them about preventing corruption in Pm&DC.
- Dr. Syed Fazle Hadi believes in Team Work. He has every intention to apply this principle to his new responsibility as Chairman of the Board of Governors at MTI Mardan.
